“ Some days are harder than others, my dearest sister in Christ. You left me in this realm on the heels of my husband, Michael's departure as well. I can only. . ."leave not to my own understanding but give thanks and subligation in all things" and as she knows already but it's worth saying in, what we know as the natural life, tell Mrs. Ermene how much she's loved.

“ First, I send my deepest condolences to Pat's family my love and prayers are with you even though I could not. Mr. and Mrs. Greene were like my second family. I was always with Delores and of course Pat was the youngest she was so sweet as a child and an adult. She will be sadly missed but forever in our heart.

We went to Mohegan with Pat recently. Had the time of my life. She kept calling me Chris, so I named her Peggy, we than named our friend Larissa Melissa, she was so much fun. I was looking forward to her coming up north and taking her to oxford. She was such a kind funny person. She talked to her son and mom often over that weekend. You could tell how much she loved her son, she would light up every time she talked to him. I told her you can tell your son loves you, she says oh yes he does very much and I love him. My sympathies for this tragic event. I am so sad to find out about this. Love Kelley Dion (aka Chris)

I was devastated to hear of the tragedy that had befallen this family. Trisha, I have always loved being around you with your beautiful smile and wonderful spirit. I remember the last time I saw you at my Christmas party 3 years ago and we all had a great time. Your smile and twinkling eyes could light up a room. My deepest condolences and prayers to your family and the Bookhardt family as they push through the incredible grief of losing you, Caroline and her husband, Johnny. This was a great loss to the town of Norwalk, as you all were part of the very fabric of our town. May you, Caroline and Johnny sleep in peace in the heavenly arms of our father.
