Chino, cuz we circled each other throughout our lives, we always managed to gr8 conversation about and ither family members. I was always happy to see and our growth together as we went thru life. Loved the u would talk about something tht happened and laughed until we cried. I'm sad that I didn't get to see u before going home, but I'm sure they will enjoy you being back in the fold. I'll miss dearly, much love from the my heart. My deepest condolences to the family on losing a pivotal cog in the family, I pray and hope God continues to cover each of u with his grace and love and brings u thru this difficult time.
