

Annette J McKain

September 7, 1940 - November 1, 2021

Annette J. McKain transitioned November 1st, 2021 after living three years with the effects of a brain aneurysm. Annette was born on September 7th, 1940, to Jasper C. McKain Sr. and Maggie B. McKain (nee Wilson) in Crescent City, FL as the 3rd in succession of 6 siblings. Annette grew up in Syracuse, NY and later studied Nursing at Dutchess Community College and Cornell University School of Nursing. After receiving her BSN degree and certification as a Registered Nurse, Annette served the medical needs of others in Upstate Medical Center (Syracuse, NY), and St Vincent Hospital (New York, NY). She continued her service to the medical community at the Visiting Nurse Association of Brooklyn, NY and the Visiting Nurse Services of NY. She served countless patients that couldn't leave their homes.

Along, with an extensive nursing career, Annette extended her helping profession to serving in Brooklyn Tabernacle and Bethel AME church. Annette volunteered her time in various ministries including the puppet ministry, several youth groups, the visitation ministry and Vacation Bible School. Along with this, Annette frequently traveled the world spreading the gospel of hope and healing in Africa, China, Japan, Korea, South America, and the Middle East.

Annette is preceded in death by her parents, younger sister Janice, older brother Rudolph and younger brother Ernest. Annette leaves her continued legacy to her older brother Jasper Jr. (Jeannette) and younger sister Rose along with her aunt Bernice, beloved niece Hillary, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Annette's commitment to the physical and spiritual well-being of all those she met will be a lasting fragrance to everyone she touched.
