In Loving Memory of Beryl Rose Bartley McLean

July 17, 1946 – June 6, 2026

Beryl Rose Bartley McLean was born on July 17, 1946, in Bath, Manchester, Jamaica, W.I., to Enos and Beatrice Bartley. She was one of a beloved set of twin daughters.

From an early age, Beryl was known for her kindness, compassion, humility, and unwavering love for family. She attended Nazareth Primary School and later Mount St. Joseph Academy in Mandeville before pursuing secretarial studies in Kingston. She served with dedication as a credit clerk at the Royal Bank of Canada.

In Kingston, Beryl met the love of her life, Anthony McLean Sr. Together they moved to the United States, where they built a beautiful life and raised their three children: twins Jackie and Tony, and later Steve.

A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, Beryl was the heart of her family, peacemaker, caregiver, and source of wisdom and comfort. She leaves behind a legacy of strong family values, unwavering faith, kindness, and a home filled with love.

She will be deeply missed by her children, granddaughter Kayonne, siblings, extended family, and all who were blessed to know her gentle spirit.

"She opened her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness."

Proverbs 31:26 (KJV)
