“ It was shocking to hear about Blair's passing. I met him in the early seventies on the West Side and spent time hanging out in the early eighties before he moved away and didn't stay in touch. Blair was a great guy and those of us who knew him can tell you just how unique he was. One of my fondest memories was when he, John, and myself went to see the band Rush at Nassau Coliseum, and one Christmas the 3 of us sat in Santa's lap and took a picture. My prayers go out to the family, and may he rest in Eternal Peace. Jeff

“ I was very sad to hear about your loss. Blair Rhodes was a wonderful person and friend. I met him in the early 1980s and we became good friends.

The most memorable moment was in fall of 1984. Blair, John Cardillo, Stephen and me went to see the Canadian band RUSH play at the Meadowlands Arena; it was the Grace under pressure tour.

I remember how much of a fan he was about the band YES.

Blair would come to Stamford he'll visit me when I lived at Adams Avenue.

Please feel free to call me. Raymond Lopez at 203-559-8380

Rest in peace my friend
