“ Cousin Charles was such a loving kind caring soul. He was someone you could always count on. He had a genuine true love of family. He had a very hearty laugh and a smile that you could see across the room. I will truly miss hearing his voice on holidays. He and Cousin Estelle would always make me feel loved and cared about. It was their words of encouragement that always kept me going. He will be sorely missed. Rest In Peace Cousin Charles. You are very much loved by our family.
