“ My wonderful friend of 35 years, my very first friend in high school. Years of laughs, tears, school plays, holidays, ROTC, birthdays, and more memories than I can count. Your amazing smile and infectious laugh is and will be sorely missed my brother. Rest In Peace Mark, I know you are up there singing your heart out. We love you. The Grant-King family

“ I have so many memories with my brother-in-law Mark but the fondest memories are of me being his home/barber. Not to long ago we had a conversation about that and we laughed so hard I had tears in my eyes. The haircuts he would ask for OMG!!! The designs on his head, the high top fades, the what I called the gumby look but I did it and he was happy. Mark I love you & miss you. I know I'll see you one day but for now rest easy my brother-in-law. 💙💜💙💜
