“ My grandmother’s favorite poet was Sara Teasdale. Here are two poems:

At Midnight
Sara Teasdale

*Now at last I have come to see what life is,
Nothing is ever ended, everything only begun,
And the brave victories that seem so splendid
Are never really won.
Even love that I built my spirit's house for,
Comes like a brooding and a baffled guest,
And music and men's praise and even laughter
Are not so good as rest.*

If I must go
by Sara Teasdale

*If I must go to heaven's end
Climbing the ages like a stair,
Be near me and forever bend
With the same eyes above me there;
Time will fly past us like leaves flying,
We shall not heed, for we shall be Beyond living, beyond dying,
Knowing and known unchangeably.*
