“ The Robinson Family. My deepest condolences on the loss of Mrs Robinson. She was a big part of the Bethel Sunday School for those of us growing up in the seventies. Mrs Robinson Mrs Roebuck Brother Darrow and Pastor Peter's were no joke. She taught with kindness but you paid attention in Sunday School and you did learn something. I also remember her and my Mother serving together in various Church committees. She was a tireless servant for God. My condolences to her family. May God wrap his arms around you during this time. Rip Mrs Robinson. You deserve your Heavenly rest.

“ To Candi, my deepest condolences to you and your family in the passing of your mother and I pray for your strength. I am so heartbroken that I will no longer see Mrs. Robinson's beautiful smile on Sunday mornings and have our many small talks. I will always cherish the little gifts she made and gave to me over the years, especially the last one a few months ago. I am so thankful that I have a piece of her memory including her book that will be with me always. Mrs. Robinson you will be greatly missed by me and my daughter Wendy, who remembers you fondly. May you now take your rest in Heavenly Glory.
