To The Family of Mrs. Edith Shamsideen, my prayers and condolence. I saw Edith at the Annual Convention Women's Auxiliary President's Luncheon sitting at the table with the beautiful missionaries from Faith Tabernacle.

She always had a beautiful smile. Our missionaries took a picture of your table. What a beautiful fellowship. To my surprise yesterday before waking on Thursday morning, I had a dream and I saw Edith with a navy blue beautiful dress smiling and walking through the Church door happy and healed as well as Ann Brevard. Two ladies of Faith having transitioned but a part of my dreams letting me know they are happy. Missionary Carolyn 🍷🙏🏻🙏🏻

“ To the family of the dearly departed, Edith Shamsid-Deen, on behalf of my entire family, of the late Collis and Etha McCray, I would like to extend our sincere, heartfelt sympathy and condolences on your loss... Edith's smile alone was captivating and her genuinely kind nature and spirit, especially to me, will forever be a cherished memory... sleep on my dear sister... and may her presence being with the Lord bring you great comfort during your period of bereavement and beyond... Also, family, please know that your household is in our prayers... Edith, we'll "see you on the other shore"!

Fondly,

“ I will always have much love and respect for this woman of God. She always had a warm hug and smile for me as I was growing up in Stamford and when ever I came home to Stamford and would see her at church or at an event. I will miss her here on earth but she will always be an angel in my heart. I thank God for sharing her with us.
