“ My dear Ethel, you will always be in my heart. We met at JFK airport on June 26, 1969, when you came to pick me up and take me to your home. You taught me the American culture, you helped me learn English, you took care of me before and after I married your son Tyrone. Even though I divorced him, you continued to be in touch with me all these years, you have always been loving and caring.

I know you are in heaven, I know you are now an angel and that from there you will continue to watch over me.

You will always be in my heart.

“ My cousin Ethel was always a beautiful spirit. I loved the times when my family gathered at my grandparents house on Henry Street and Cousin Ethel was one of the main women sitting in the kitchen with my Nana and as a little girl until my teens I would always run to her to get a hug and sit on her lap. I may not have seen you for some time but I will always love you. Rest easy with the angels my dear sweet elder ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏
