“ Frank Miller was my adopted father. When my brother died, he and his wife took me in their home. They did this so I can finish off my last year of high school. He and his wife treated me like one of their own. Never once did Mr. Miller or Mrs. Miller ever look down on me. I am grateful to have met Mr. Miller and his wonderful family. I just have to say thanks for showing love to me when I young and broken. Frank Miller I love you and Rest in peace.
