Uncle Jerry, I can just remember you coming to Grandma Dallas house and talking to us. I remember you would take a Apple Danish and bite a piece and I would beg and you would give it to me.It sent my mom (your sister Christy) crazy and Grandma Dallas Crazy. They would say,"Jerry don't let her eat after you.""We don't know where your mouth has been. ". I still remember this and I was just about 2 years old. Love you Uncle Forever. LIL Cynthia, your niece.

Dear Uncle Jerry. I'll never forget riding with you in the car when I was young ..I always sit in the back seat and hold on..lol. you always was a sharp dresser and your photo album proved it..the first time I heard the word sharp skins .you had them on.. so many memories especially of you singing AL Green Songs . I love you Uncle Jerry..take care of the Family up there with you ..see you again !! Love always. Your Neice Sheila
