“ Extending sincere sympathy to Nadine and the children and family of Henry. Saddened to hear of his passing. We shared many good times together growing up in Camden, SC. Henry’s and Nadine’s family was our family. God has a place prepared for those who loved Him. We will meet again in that prepared place. Eternal rest Henry.

“ A personal tribute to my first cousin Henry “Frederick” Carter – you were always the embodiment of “cool” and kept the Carter family bonded over the years. Your love for automobiles (he had many, but my favorites – a ‘57 Chevy sedan, a canary yellow Plymouth Road Runner, and a 442 Hurst Oldmobile); your love of music & entertainment (he took me to my first record shop at the age of 3 and was a July 4th picnic regular); your love of family (he scored a beautiful wife and children); and most importantly your love of God were all direct influences on my life. You offered counsel always with a smile – no matter the time, date or subject. Cousin, I know you’re smiling now with so many of our loved ones. You will never be forgotten and you will always be loved! – Frank Jones, III and family

“We have such fond memories of Elder Carter (Fred) over the years and will truly miss him. Although our hearts were sadden when we received the news, there are so many moments we remember and cherish. He was a great man of God who ministered the Word with fire and anointing. He was also such a joy to be around as he always had a great sense of humor and funny stories to tell. Personally, I saw him as a big brother and as a second father. I appreciate the time, the experiences and what I learned from him - From fishing, to working out, watching movies, laughing and joking, learning to drive, moving jobs, our families getting together, attending church, discussing the bible, just to name a few. Getting to know him, his wife, children and family was a great pleasure. We all felt like one big family. I am thankful for the relationship we developed over the years. Our families have grown and expanded since then, and my prayer is that you all will be surrounded by the peace and comfort of God. We understand that a time like this is not easy and we send our regards, our love and our prayers. May you receive strength and encouragement and be there for each other. Please also know we are here for you! Love Mandrell, Valencia, Christian, Brandon & Lauryn Bostic
