“ To The Bryant Family, My brother, my friend...Jack..it's still like a bad dream that has occurred in the loss of a kind, caring gentleman who graced this side of the Jordan...the love that he had for his family, children, grands, youth , the Church and the City of Stamford will never be duplicated..it is my prayer that his spirit will guide the right choice to pick up the mantel of his legacy that was cut short and to soon...May the God that we serve, prop all of you up with His comforting arms!
Love and Prayers of strength in days to come.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. Our local and state communities have lost a giant in the person of “Deacon” Jack. Over the years, I have enjoyed a wonderful professional affiliation with Jack, particularly while in his role as NAACP President. He will be remembered best by the many young people of color whose lives he touched for the better. Rest well, Deacon Jack. You will remain always in our hearts.
