“ To The Family of Mr. James Cheeseboro our deepest condolences. Mr. Cheeseboro was a kind, humble, professional and Christian. May The good Lord comfort you as he rest from his labors. I remember his attendance in Church when he was able to attend. It's thundering as I make this post because Mr. Cheeseboro care about others as evident by his profession. Missionary C. “ I'm not sure what I was most fond of ... James' excellent scalp massages when washing your hair at the East Main Street Salon? Or his smooth Hustle "moves & grooves" on the dance floor at the Elks Hall where we all gather to have fun! Dee, aka my birthday twin, you and your family have my deepest sympathy. Thanking God for the precious "Cheese" memories that bring smiles to so many faces!

“ Sincerest condolences to the Cheeseboro family. I have fond memories of James coming into Haagen Daz when I was a teenager. I ended up calling him "cookies and cream" because that is the only flavor he would order.

Godspeed Cookies and Cream. Peace and blessings to the family.
