“ I cannot even count how many times I've walked in the back door and was greeted by Johnnie Mae offering a cup of ice tea and a smile.

Johnnie Mae always had a smile and was so nice every time...I mean every time. Yes, my earliest memory was Brenda and I having the same outfit and training wheels at the age of 4 years old. Our fathers would takes us for a walk, and I still remember Johnnie Mae smiling and waving.

Brenda, after 48 years of friendship...you know that I am here for you anytime.

Blessings and Prayers to the Rowser family.
