“ Dear Audrey, Joe & families. Faith Church and the City of Stamford has lost an icon. From the Housing Authority, to the FTMBC Credit Union, Deacon Whitaker has greatly served the church members and community. He treated everyone fairly and reminded us every Sunday that there are no big I's or little you's. Deacon Whitaker will truly be missed. You have my prayers and condolences.

*Dear Naomi and Family:
Please accept our condolences. Your uncle was a great man, who loved the Lord with all his heart. His deep understanding of the Bible was exemplary and compelling. Although my grandfather, who was a minister in South Carolina, did not live long enough for me to know him, your uncle knew him. He would often regale me with stories about my grandfather and his ministry! That was special! We have lost a God-fearing, iconic person in the church and in the larger Stamford community. I know that he now rests in the arms of our Savior and, one day, I will see him and my grandfather.*

“ To Audrey and Joe Jr & The Whitaker, I am saddened by the news of Deacon Whitaker but I have wonderful memories of him teaching me and my siblings in Sunday School and how he smiled and answered every question. He was excellent as a mentor when I took minutes for Coleman Towers at that time. I was young and I saw that he believed in homeownership that was his dream for us. We learned the importance of having good credit and to trust God when we met adversity. His laughter, prayers and his embracing the spirit in his prayer will have a lasting memory. In his office was a sign don't assume anything. I was blessed to live on Conn Ave where we had good Christian neighbors who cared about each other and my girls got to attend Westhill. Deacon Whitaker take your rest you have an excellent legacy and loving Family down to your children, nieces and nephews who carry that same smile that came from your Mom. Thank God Faith Tabernacle will remember your gifts and talents and may Stamford continue to have a heart for affordable housing and training young people to be able to stand and endure hard trials.
