“ I remember you as being the rock to the family keep things together for all your children, and grandchildren. I known her to be a woman of Faith. I believe that when the Lord called you home that He said well done. I know we will see you again. There is no greater cloud of witness rooting for us. I know that your are in those clouds. Rest in the Lord, until we meet again. For children & Grands make sure that you make Heaven your home, so you may see mom & grandma again. God bless!

Love Renee!
