Celebrating the Life of Ollie B. Spaulding

In Loving Memory of Ollie B. Spaulding

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Ollie B. Spaulding, beloved mother, grandmother, aunt friend, who left us on November 3, 2025, at the age of 88. She was surrounded by loved ones in her passing at her Daughter Audrey D. Tyson's home in Bridgeport Ct and will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Early Life and Family

Born on March 21, 1937, in Farmville County, North Carolina, Ollie B. Spaulding was the cherished child of Sampson Tyson and Leatha Briggs both of whom is deceased. Growing up in The City of Stamford. She developed a love for many hobbies, interests, and values. She completed her education in Farmville North Carolina and moved here to Stamford Ct, where she forged lifelong friendships and built a foundation for her remarkable life.

Career and Achievements

Ollie B. Spaulding dedicated her professional life to Pitney Bowes for more than 30 years as a Machinists, and after her retirement she continued to work with Goodwill both in Stamford C. Known for her integrity, commitment, and kindness, she made a lasting impact on colleagues and the community. Some of her proudest accomplishments included notable achievements, and milestones.

Personal Life and Passions

Outside of work, she loved attending her daughter Apostle Audrey Tyson's church in Bridgeport, Ct. She was filled with so much admiration for her dear companion and daughter Nicole Escoffrey where they delivered food to the community on their Door Dash runs. Ollie's warmth, humor, and generosity touched everyone she met.

“ My sincere condolences to Sandra, Audrey and Yvette. I have wonderful memories growing up with your family as Felicia (FeFe) and I were in the same grade. Ms. Tyson always welcomed me with her winning smile and wide-open arms whenever I visited your home with Val Simmons. I will treasure the great memories I have with your entire family and keep you in prayer at this time.
