

Thaddeus Christopher Holman Jr.

May 6, 1953 - July 27, 2024

Thaddeus Christopher (“Chris”) Holman, Jr. was born May 6, 1953, in Estill, South Carolina to Thaddeus Holman, Sr., and the late Evangelist Elizabeth (“Betty”) Fields, Holman White.

At the time of his passing Chris resided in Atlanta, Georgia. Prior to leaving Stamford, CT – Chris was employed in the healthcare field as a Patient Care Technician. He attended Stamford public schools, graduating from Rippowam High School.

Chris enjoyed playing basketball with his cousins and friends in different leagues. He loved nice cars, fast driving and long-distance driving, especially traveling to family events in the South. He also loved playing board games including checkers, chess and Sorry. He liked looking good and dressing up. Most of all, Chris loved the Lord. His infectious smile, his swag and style will be missed by all who knew him.

Chris was predeceased by his Mother Evangelist Elizabeth “Betty” Fields Holman White, and brothers Timothy and Kevin Holman. He leaves behind a loving family including his father Thaddeus Holman Sr., his daughter, Niki Sakina Monique Holman, son, Dwayne Dion Jeffries, granddaughter, Shaveya Alyanna Dantzler, grandson, Matthew Joseph Malachi, 3 great grandchildren, Makhi, Nasir, and Zavion Foster, sister, Francine Roberts, brother Greg Holman, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday September 14, 2024 at Graves
