October 26, 1939 - February 21, 2026

Mrs. Thomasena Williams-Wells October 26, 1938 – February 21, 2026

Mrs. Thomasena Williams-Wells peacefully transitioned on February 21, 2026, leaving a legacy of faith, strength, love, and an unforgettable personality. Born on October 26, 1938, in Camden, South Carolina, to Eulene and Rachel Williams, she moved at an early age to Stamford, Connecticut, with her family. There, she lived a life devoted to God, grounded in deep love for her family and marked by a spirit that touched everyone she encountered.

On August 20, 1968, she was united in Holy Matrimony to Willie B. Wells. Thomasena was truly one of a kind—outspoken yet kind, full of humor, and never shy about speaking her mind. Though short in stature, she was mighty in spirit, carrying herself with resilience and determination. After relocating several times, she and Willie settled in Ashburn, Virginia, in 2014.

Family meant everything to Thomasena. She cherished special holiday dinners, family reunions, and long phone conversations with loved ones. She took great pride in preparing her famous collard greens and cabbage—favorites that no one else could quite master. She also delighted in watching Family Feud and The Price Is Right, simple joys that brought laughter and lighthearted moments into her home. She was truly a blessing to all.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Willie B. Wells; her cherished son, Lemuel Williams; and her daughter, Eda Rush.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her sons, Darnell Luckett, Reginald Williams (Rose Marie), and Fredrick Rush; and her niece, Shirley Williams. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Natasha Topps (William), Shvonne Craig- (William), Rigene Williams, and Darnell Luckett Jr.; and her great-grandchildren: Jasmyn Johnson, Catherine Craig, and Madison Topps. We offer love to family members: Kryce, Deborah, Sharon, Bianca, Pam, Wanda, Joyce, Devon, Beverly Jean, Sharon, Lamar, Eric, Thomas, Shakira, Thomas, Shoshanah, Sherrell, Eric, Ayisha, Talya, Wanda, Sheek, Terryn, Kashika, Jaymes, Vincent, Maggie-Sue, Pat, Devon, Jurlene, many other loved ones.

We would also like to recognize those who faithfully checked on Thomasena, prayed with her, visited her, and cared for her.

We are deeply grateful to our home church, First Sterling in Sterling, Virginia, under Bishop Leslie Patterson and Co-Pastor Dr. Francine Patterson. Special thanks to Deaconess Debbie Wheeler, Gerri Arnold, Katura Fetterson, Deacon Michael Townsend, Eva Mason, Yvonne Michelle Mason, Barbra, Howie, and Darlene Ellis, Dr. Valerie M. Rhodes, caregiver Aamera Polly, Barbara Williams, Sarreta Herrera Brewster, Nancy Leisa, and Karen Michael. May God bless you all.

“Well, done, thou good and faithful servant... Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.” — Matthew 25:23

“ To the Family of Mother Thomasena Williams-Wells,

There are no words that can truly ease the pain you feel right now, but please accept our deepest and most heartfelt condolences on the passing of your beloved, Thomasena. We pray that God's comforting presence will surround you and that you will find strength and peace in His love during this difficult time.

Someone once said, "When a loved one passes, it's because God finally caught their eye." God has now caught Thomasena's eye and gently called her home to her well-deserved, eternal rest. Bishop and Co-Pastor Patterson, along with the Officers and Members of First Sterling Church, stand with you in love and prayer. Please know that we are here to support you and your family in any way you may need—lean on us.

With deepest sympathy,

*Bishop & Co-Pastor Patterson and the Officers of

“ I Did My Best

Mom, I did my best and my heart is so broken. I know through Christ all things are possible to include healing. In moments of my grief, I draw strength from the Word of God.

The scripture offers me hope, comfort, and assurance of eternal life and seeing you once more. Remembering you through the stories we shared and the memories we created helps me celebrate your life. I am reminded of the importance of family, through you, as we supported one another through this cycle of life and death. “I did my best.”

Every life has purpose, and through faith, I continue to find the light amidst my sorrow. Mom, I hope to find solace in the promises of seeing you once more. “I did my best.”

Now that you are gone, God’s presence shall comfort you and his grace shall hold me until such a day where I can kiss your face once more. Mom, I love you, I miss you, I am broke-but will heal because “I did my best.”
