“ I am thinking about Bing and his sense of humor and his way of always laughing about everything. Not too much made him upset and that was a good thing. I called him names and he called me names always laughing about everything and ready to cook something for someone else. I am smiling as I remember him. Rest in peace Bing.

“ Condolence to Valmore (Bing) Johnson's family (especially Christine)
On saying the name Bing as he was affectionately called you felt like laughing, and being in his presence that's exactly what he would let you do. Bing was really a jovial person with a warm and friendly personality. He had the art of making everyone feel comfortable and relaxed around him.
He will be missed by many, but remembered for his inspiration and infectious laugh. RIP Bing.

My condolences to the Johnson's family: Veronica and the children; Christine and Lennox. Bing was always dear to my heart. I remembered coming over several times when I encountered numerous challenges as an international student in New York. He was always so caring and warm and I considered him a true friend and brother. I continue to pray for his family and trust that they will continue to find strength in the Lord. Rest well in the arms of Jesus my friend

“Hey honey bunch!” I’ll miss hearing him say that. He was always happy to see the Gonzales family. Even when he was sick. His smile and his stories will be greatly missed. Bing was the one that told me I was with child. My firstborn who shares the letter V as his and grandma Veronica’s first name. Taking comfort in knowing to be absent from the body is to be present with the Most High! He said he will walk again. He is now walking around in heaven. Gone but not forgotten. Blessings, Peace, Love and Comfort to all. 🌸

My memories of Bing are: 1. A FUN LOVING person, full of laughter. 2. A KIND HEARTED individual who always extended himself to assist others. 3. WARMTH PERSONIFIED, for Bing the most often used greeting would be "Honey Bunches/ Dear". Bing, at rest with his maker. Will be remembered. My prayers are with the family. Lenise Brown Johnson

“ I have sooo many fond memories of being in Bing’s presence... his infectious smile and the way he would say hello darling... the love he unselfishly shown to Rev. Christie and I and the way he treated our kids with so much love and concern. He never missed an opportunity to tell them how proud he was of them and encouraged them to follow their dreams. Although I will greatly miss his physical presence, I have no doubt that our spirits will meet on the other side of Jordan. My prayers of strength, perseverance and peace are with the family, especially Veronica. Love you so very much. With much gratitude, Arnita Christie
