“ Debra, Skip was a wonderful and kind neighbor for many years. I'm so sorry that I wasn't aware that he had passed and joined Miss Vivien. I looked forward to his friendly wave when we'd see each other retrieving mail. I will always think of him dearly even though we've moved away.

“ As we affectionately called him, Skip was my grandfather's, Horace Garrett's nephew. We did not know he had transitioned. We tried to reach him, but his number kept saying it was unavailable. Unfortunately, we did not have any other contact information. We decided to google search for him and came across his Obituary. He was very kind and gentle. The Garrett family will miss him!!

“ It is with a heavy heart and full of love to Debra and family. May God's continued Grace and strength be with you at this time. Charles and I loved "Skip" as a father/grandfather and will always keep his memory alive in our hearts. With Love, Charlene & Charles Jr Blackwell
