“ Billy Wilds, One of the best. Met him when he was just sixteen. Billy and Buddy use to come out to the house, we had a roping arena then. Oh so many years back, Such great memories. Use to see him when my oldest son started calf roping, then once an again thru the years. My sincere sympathy to the family.

You remind me of when I was little and I would go with daddy over to Uncle Buddy's so they could practice. I would get to load the calves in the shoot and let them go. Thank you for that memory.

“ I can't say enough good things about Billy, We are blessed to have been able to call him our friend. On our last visit before they closed the facility to visitors, he had said " You know, it doesn't cost people nothing to be nice to one another." That's the way he lived his life and why we all loved him. RIP Billy.

Never met another person like Billy, He's done more for people then you could imagine. Not one person, have anything to say bad about Billy, For what he's done for me I could never forget. Truly best person I've ever known. I'am so glad I thanked him for what he's dun for me. I worked with Billy, for a year when I came home from shoeing school. I would tell him everything that I have I owe to him. He would just smile. R.I.P. my friend!

Billy was the best farrier in his day..I remember the Norwalk Memorial Day Parade, when I hired him to pick me up at Vet's Park, to take me home. He had borrowed Walt Humphrey's tandem trailer to take my horse home. The horse got half way in, then came crashing out, and the trailer door hit Billy in the forehead and caused a huge ut. I was so upset, but Billy was so kind, and forgiving. I had to ride that horse from Vet's Park, almost to the Three Bears to get him home Boy was I sore. Thank You, Billy, for not getting upset at me, or my horse Janice Magalas

He was my Mentor, my friend, and the best role model a young man growing up and trying to figure it all out could ask for. I am honored he was my friend. He was a good man who left a positive mark in this world. He will be missed.
